

The Best Restaurants in Phoenix Right Now

Quiessence

South Phoenix

High-end farm-to-fork fare served up in a dreamy countryside setting

Lush green grass, picnic tables, and a canopy of trees set the scene at The Farm at South Mountain, home to a café where breakfast is the speciality, a walk-up kitchen, and Quiessence. Organic ingredients, freshly-harvested vegetables, and artisan breads and cheeses comprise the menu here, which rotates weekly. Chef Dustin Christofolo delivers uncomplicated and award-winning cuisines -- often best accompanied by a glass of Arizona wine.

